

2003 AGA–Boston Chapter Awards

Chapter Agency Award – Massachusetts Office of the State Comptroller

The Chapter Agency Service Award was presented to the Massachusetts Office of the State Comptroller in grateful appreciation for its long tradition of outstanding support provided to AGA and the Boston Chapter. Martin Benison, CGFM, Comptroller of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and member of the Boston Chapter, accepted the award.

Mel Partol Memorial Award – Jane Gustowski

The Mel Partol Memorial Award was presented to Jane Gustowski in grateful recognition of her superior dedication and devoted service to the Boston Chapter.

Annual Achievement Award – John J. Sullivan and David A. LeBlanc, CGFM

The Annual Achievement Award was presented to John J. Sullivan and David A. LeBlanc, CGFM and in recognition of their efforts to ensure the financial and statistical integrity of the Massachusetts Department of Education School Districts Annual Reports.

Special Achievement Award – Kimberly Rapoza

The Special Achievement Award was presented to Kimberly Rapoza in recognition of her outstanding contributions toward improving financial management in the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services.

Special Recognition Award – Mary T. Leyden, CGFM

A Special Recognition Award was presented to Mary T. Leyden, CGFM in grateful appreciation for her many years of active membership in the Boston Chapter.

President's Award – Howard Olsher, CGFM

The President's Award was presented to Howard Olsher, CGFM in grateful appreciation of his extraordinary support and commitment throughout the 2002-2003 Program Year.

Walter Frese Memorial Scholars – Maryann Costello and Keenyn D. McFarlane

Maryann Costello and Keenyn McFarlane were each awarded a $1,000 Walter Frese Memorial Scholarship. Ms. Costello is pursuing a Master's degree at Nichols College and Mr. McFarlane is pursuing a Master's degree at Bentley College. Both are well-deserving recipients of these competitive scholarships.