President's Message

February, the shortest month of the year.

We start with Groundhog Day. So let me understand this, if the little guy sees his shadow we get six more weeks of winter. It's going to take six weeks just to dig him out of all of the snow that we currently have.

Our monthly holiday in February is President's Day. I won't ask for a show of hands, but how many people remember when instead there was no school for both Lincoln's birthday and Washington's birthday in February.

Last month we had a full-day session at the Volpe Building in Cambridge. We were very fortunate to have Dave Hancox, CIA, CGFM of the New York Comptroller's Office speak on the subjects of Organizational Control Concepts and Fraud.

For education this month we will have an audio conference on the subject of Internal Controls to be held at the JFK Federal Building in Boston. Details regarding the session and registration information are elsewhere in this newsletter and on our web site.

Plan ahead and keep your calendar open for the Chapter's Annual Regional Developmental Conference at Bentley University on March 15'th. Keynote speakers will be AGA National President Lisa Casias, Massachusetts State Auditor Suzanne Bump and TV Investigative Reporter, Jim Hummel. There will also be ten different breakout sessions to choose from.

In the midst of the month Red Sox pitchers and catchers report to Fort Myers and we will see them on TV jogging around in the warm weather while we are still shoveling up the walk and driveway. When we get to the end of the month we can hopefully see the end of the tunnel and start thinking about spring. Rain instead of snow may be a welcome sight.

AGA, in conjunction with the National Association of State Auditors Comptrollers and Treasurers (NASACT) and the Association of Local Government Auditors (ALGA), is pleased to announce a new and increasingly important topic to our audio conference schedule making internal controls work by considering risks to the organization and building certain procedures into behavior.

This program will show participants how to design and implement effective internal controls, match organization risks to internal control procedures and build strong soft control procedures into daily behaviors. The presenter will use case studies and examples to cover some of the following topic areas, soft controls versus hard controls, preventive controls versus detective controls and the COSO Control Framework and similar models.

To share his expertise in internal controls, fraud and risk management is John J. Hall, CPA, a professional speaker, seminar instructor and business consultant. He has 30-plus years of business experience in public accounting, multinational corporations and as a business owner and operator. His presentations stress active participant interaction, the development of high impact “how to” actions and solutions, and enhanced business and interpersonal skills for all involved.

Please join us for two hours of lively discussion about this important and timely topic.

Three CPE’s will be awarded for this Audio Conference.

Boston Chapter Education Recap

Winter Seminar - 2011

David R. Hancox, CIA, CGFM, Director of Audits: NYS Comptroller’s Office presented to 75 members and guests on the subject of Organizational Control Concepts and Fraud.

Today, government organizations are under siege. Rising costs and stagnant or declining tax revenues are forcing government administrators to reassess public policy and administrative practices.

Today, people in the financial management arena need to be at the cutting edge to assure public resources are used in the most effective way.

Dave used real life examples during this day-long seminar and explored ways to bring our organizations up to new levels of efficiency and effectiveness. It helped put in place control concepts that matter and to help find the fraud that occurs in all organizations of any significant size.

This interactive session addressed our questions and gave practical solutions to take back to the office.

Seven CPE’s were awarded for this Seminar.

Job shadowing is a yearlong national effort to enrich the lives of students by acquainting them with the world of work through on-the-job experiences and a carefully crafted school curriculum that ties academics to the workplace. A number of our members stated that their offices will participate this year.

CEC Meeting Highlights

The Boston Chapter Executive Committee met on Tuesday, Jan. 11, 2011 Please note the following:

Education: The calendar of events was reviewed with discussion centering cancelation of the January Audio Conference because of bad weather upcoming Winter Seminar. We have also focused on the Regional Professional Developmental Conference in March of 2011, where we will have three keynote speakers including the National President.

Treasurer: A brief review of the balance sheet was conducted. The draft budget for FY11 was also discussed identifying current and future sources of revenue, along with anticipated expenditures.

By-laws: We are now working on further updating our by-laws, to make them consistent with current reality.

Community Services: We discussed the annual Holiday Fundraiser held for Christmas in the City.

Accountability: We have discussed several ideas. The major action item is to find the right person for Director to drive this area, and support that person with a committee.

CGFM, Membership, and Early Careers: Membership has increased by slowly since late July. We are contacting suspended members via letters and telephone with the goal of making their status to be active again. Five universities/colleges were contacted to participate in the early careers initiative.

Sponsorship Opportunities: Discussions centered on creating opportunities for corporate sponsorship. Discussions included offering various levels of sponsorship (i.e. bronze, silver, gold) and event sponsorships. A discussion memo was drafted to evaluate and determine the best direction to go. The Executive Committee agreed that this is an item we wish to pursue.

The next meeting is scheduled for Tuesday, Feb. 8.

CGFM News

Here are some important reminders about the CGFM renewal period that started on January 1, 2011.

There are several requirements to maintain the CGFM designation in the active status:

- Adhere to AGA's Code of Ethics (requirement for all CGFMs and AGA members).
- Pay the CGFM renewal fee by March 31 every year.
- Complete at least 80 hours of continuing professional education (CPE) in government financial management topics or related technical subjects within the designated two-year cycle.
- Maintain and, if requested by AGA, provide detailed information on CPE hours completed.

CGFM renewal payment is due every year by March 31.

- You can now renew your CGFM (as well as AGA membership) online. Please log in now (members.agacgfm.org) to renew and check that your address/contact information is up-to-date.
- In January an electronic invoice will go out in the email, and in February a renewal invoice will be mailed to those who have not yet renewed.
- Please contact AGA if you have not renewed and have not received an invoice by the end of February. Please note that the CGFM renewal policy states that it is the responsibility of each CGFM to pay the annual CGFM renewal fee, even if that individual did not receive an invoice from AGA.

CGFMs can renew their designation only if they are in compliance with the CPE requirements.

- Your current CPE cycle is 1/1/10-12/31/11, during which you need to earn 80 CPE hours.
- Upon completion of your cycle, please make sure you have met the CPE requirement prior to renewing the CGFM. By submitting the annual renewal payment, CGFMs affirm that they have fulfilled the minimum CPE requirements.
- If you are unable to complete at least 80 hours in your 2010-2011 cycle, you can use a grace period of 1/1/12-3/31/12 to catch up on your hours. Any hours completed toward a deficiency in one CPE cycle cannot be counted toward the requirements for the next CPE cycle.
- CGFMs are required to maintain supporting documentation on CPE hours earned for a minimum of three years and provide it to AGA upon request. Please do not send your CPE documentation to AGA unless it is requested.

Only active CGFMs can use "CGFM" after their name.

- Individuals who have not met the requirements to maintain the CGFM in the active status become inactive and may not use the CGFM designation after their name.
- Individuals who have met the retired status definition, and have been approved for adjustment of their status to "retired" by AGA, may use "CGFM-Retired" after their name.

For more information on CGFM renewal, CPE requirements, inactive status and retired status please visit www.agacgfm.org/cgfm/maintain.
